[Title slide]

Phia: 안녕하세요, 케이 부인. 저희는 조쉬, 파우, 그리고 피아입니다, and we are presenting our project, Know Your Idol!

[Slide 1]

Josh: Do you really know your K-pop groups and biases that well? Most fans claim to be experts, so we decided to put that to the test. We're Josh Mejia, Pau Magarde, and Phia Tadeo, and we created Know Your Idol, a fun but educational quiz game! Pau, why don't you introduce our game to Ma'am Kaye?

[Slide 2]

Pau: Our group designed a fun but educational quiz that tests how well you know your favorite K-pop groups. Introducing Know Your Idol! A fun, interactive, user-friendly game that tests your knowledge on your favorite K-pop idols (no very personal information included. We value the privacy of our idols). We included the groups EXO, NEWJEANS, TWICE, PLAVE, LE SSERAFIM, TVXQ!, ENHYPEN, STRAYKIDS, and MONSTA X (not sponsored), all popular, well-known K-pop groups, with 5-question quizzes to ensure a fun learning experience!!

Phia: Now that we're done with the introductions, how did we write our code? Ma'am Kaye, if you remember the first few days of grade 8, you might recall when you saw me open a code and joke about how I already had a code for the fourth quarter. That was actually my group's code back in grade 7, a quiz game about Jose P. Laurel. But what makes our current code better or more improved than last year's? Well, instead of inputting each question into the main code, we input them into a JSON file for a shorter, more organized code.

Pau: [summarize how u wrote the code in ur own words, I can't lmao]

[Slide 3]

Josh: Let's talk about the game mechanics. The player gets to choose from nine K-pop groups: EXO, NEWJEANS, TWICE, PLAVE, LE SSERAFIM, TVXQ!,

ENHYPEN, STRAYKIDS, and MONSTA X (again, not sponsored). After making their choice, they will answer a 5-item quiz about the group, the group's members, or their songs. After answering the questions, they will receive their score and an option to leave or play again. If they choose to play again, they can choose another K-pop group's quiz. If they choose to leave, they will be shown their final scores, with the credits of the game.
